When the summer street cars make their appearance you will hardly recognize them. Superintendent Holiday has been putting in his spare moments for sometime past in painting and rehabilitating them. It will afford one a real pleasure to ride in them, they look so nobby and nice. Beecher is the right man in the right place.

DECISION AFFIRMED

Court of Appeals Yesterday Passed on the Suit of Tom Manns

Yesterday the Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Judge Paynter, affirmed the Mason Circuit Court in the case of Thomas Manns vs. the Commonwealth.

Manns was convicted of shooting and wounding John B. Farrow.

Manns, with Edward Morrison and Charles Saunders, went to the home of Farrow and demanded his money and when Farrow refused, Manns shot him.

In the Mason Circuit Court he was given five years, and this decision was affirmed by the Appellate Court.

LOOKS PRETTY STEEP

How a Small Fine Makes a Mighty Big Pile of Costs

They say it is according to law and so laid down in the statute; not being versed in matters pertaining thereto, there is no reasonable grounds to gainsay the truthfulness of the assertion.

But, to a man up a tree, void of all knowledge of the cumbersome environments of a Magisterial Court, the law as expounded and the justice as meted out to the unfortunate who is caught in the meshes, it is not as plain as a, b, c, how those potentates who sit upon the throne and hand down the law, as is reported provided for in the statute, can fine a poor devil $1 and pile up a cost amounting to $11 in all.

If such is law then it is had law and should be remedied at once.

The law as understood by the every day people is that it is based on common sense and justice.

If a law permits one to virtually rob another, then it is void of the basic principles of law—common sense and justice,—and very few will deny that in a manner, at least, where a person is fined $5 and a bill of costs amounting to $15.75 is poked at him, it is bordering near the line of Kleptomaniac.

There is law for it though, as every Magistrate will take pleasure in pointing out. For instance, the County Attorney comes in for $5 in every conviction—and in one afternoon recently his divy in five small fines amounted to $25; and it was not an extraordinarily good day for ducks either.

Something wrong somewhere, don't you think so readers?

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver; and all the fine spirits ever made in the Bluegrass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower, the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. For sale by Henry W. Ray, Postoffice Drugstore.

IF YOU CARE TO BE PROGRESSIVE, YOU WILL HAVE YOUR NAME IN THE NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY.

The List Will Be Closed March 15th.

The few subscribers whose street numbers we have failed to get are requested to call up Exchange and give same before that date.

Any who are thinking of having Telephones put in will appreciate the advantages of getting their orders to us at once, and getting in the now book.

We can put in a limited number in the time specified.

Call up 244 for terms.

Well Again.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chandlerlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monro, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this "Balm" affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Use Ray's Edelweiss Cream for chapped hands and rough skin.

"Hello Bill" is a coming attraction at the Washington Opera-house.

Colonel Robert M. Cartmell, after several days illness, is again at his office.

There are plenty of Democrats in this county who won't vote for Grover Cleveland if he gets the nomination for President, it is said.

A grand niece of Mr. Clarence L. Wood died in Oklahoma City a few days since, aged seven years. She was a granddaughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Wood Stillwell, deceased, formerly of this county.

The Rev. John Stonestreet Van Meter, former Pastor of the Paris Presbyterian Church, died of heart trouble Tuesday in New York City. He was 58 years of age and was a brother-in-law of Hon. John W. Yerkes.

FOR SALE

Clover seed, timothy and oats, and fertilizer for tobacco beds.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. HOOKE'S HORSE TRADE

He Runs Up Against the Market—and Then the Morgue

Mr. Joseph Crawford—better known as "Hooker" by his host of friends—took a sly at the horse market County Court Day.

After considerable dickering he finally succeeded in buying a saddle and harness mare, white in color, age 34 years, sire and dam forgotten, for which he paid the large price of $8. After surveying his purchase he concluded that a square meal would not hurt the old lady, so he hired a small boy for 50 cents to lead his steed to the stable to be fed.

On the way the mare dropped dead, from causes so far unknown. For this job Hooker had to pay $1.50 to have the carcass removed to the river.

Hooker, of course, is somewhat pat out on his first horse deal—$10 worth—but if any of his friends have a good "horse" that they can guarantee to last long enough to get one feed it would be a good place to unload.

THE BEE HIVE!

Dear Customer:

Three years ago we anchored here. Since then we have given Maysville a drygoods store different from any that had ever existed here. We were trained for an up-to-date drygoods business. We do not claim that all our methods are original, for we get ideas from some of the best drygoods stores in the country. We doubt if there is a store in the world the size of ours that stands in with as many large stores as do we. That's to your as well as our advantage. A big store buys a lot of underwear at a very close price; says to us that we can have what we want of it at cost price. Another store buys a million pounds of writing paper; says to us you can have 10 pounds, 100 pounds or whatever you want at just what it cost us. That's "standing in." Do you get the idea? Saturday the C. and O. Freight Office telephoned us that 100 cases carpets, etc.,—about 20,000 pounds—have arrived. We will open them this week. Good things, that's sure. Come every day, for every day will be opening day. Our Mr. A. L. Merz telegraphed that an offer he had made on a large lot of goods had been accepted. Prepare for a big sale; when the goods come you will hear from us. And now before closing we want to say one word about Globe Stamps. Don't for one minute think we give them to you because we are GENEROUS; no, it's a cold business proposition; we give them to make cash trade. Most houses we buy goods from say you can have so much time, but we will give you a per cent. off for cash. That's what we say—stamps for cash. Some stores say they won't give stamps; they would have to mark their goods higher. We are wondering if they did. We don't. Sincerely yours,

KINGS OF

A PART of the immense sums that are being raised for the heathen might be applied to the Maysville heathen who tolerate streets such as no well regulated savage would endure.

AND now Covington is "all torn up" hunting for frauds and graft in connection with the building of her new City Hall. The dishonesty of public officials is enough to make one oppose Senator Byron's plan to have all criminals executed at Frankfort.

HUMAN nature is pretty much the same, whether its vent takes place in Kentucky or in Ohio. Heretofore,—their own territory comparatively free of outrages that seemed to demand punishment more sure and speedy than accorded by the Courts,—when a Negro lynching occurred in Kentucky, the Ohio papers were most liberal in denunciation of outlaws in this state; but there was a Negro lynching in the important city of Springfield a few nights ago, and this is the way The Cincinnati Times-Star's report speaks of it—

"At the Courthouse and Sheriff's residence, which stand side by side, the people gathered in knots and discussed the tragedy. The one opinion prevailed—that the work of the mob was justifiable. There is apparently no disposition to make an effort to discover the mob leaders. While the lynching is deplored, the community is almost a unit in commending the lynching, which, it is contended, has taught the lawless element of the city a wholesome lesson."

The victim, by the way, was a colored desperado originally from Kentucky, who had added the killing of a popular policeman to a long list of lesser crimes.

The report of a Covington Hospital says the number of patients received during the year was 695, of which 382 were married and 316 single. Adding these last figures, makes 698, or three more than the total admissions; and the solution must be that some of the patients were probably over-married.

The New York Sun, in a very careful article, attempts to sum up the situation and suggests the real reason for American hostility to Russia in her fight with Japan; and here is its thoughtful summary—

"How, then, has it come to pass that in her present hour of trouble our old friend, Russia, can no longer count upon American sympathy? It is because the Czar Nicholas II. has been ill served by his agents and advisers. The Minister of the Interior, who incited, permitted or failed adequately to punish the massacre of Jews at Kishineff put an irreparable blot upon the fair name of Russia. But what temporarily wrecked her in American esteem and confidence was the assumption of her sly diplomatists that methods successful at Pekin would also succeed in Washington, and that the solemn promise made to our State Department that Russia would evacuate Manchuria on October 8th, 1903,—nearly five months ago—could be violated with impunity.

"Then it was that the American people, regretting that the Czar should be so badly served, felt themselves constrained to say to Russia that they could no longer trust her. 'I love thee, but never more be officer of mine.'"

There is a great deal in the suggestion, says The Louisville Herald. St. Petersburg and Washington today represent the opposite poles of diplomatic methods. Washington is all candor, frankness and directness; St. Petersburg is all circumlocution, evasion and concealment. Russia shocked the world by the violation of her promises concerning Manchuria, while Japan, our protegee, has adopted the American fashion of carrying out her agreements.

Suit will be brought against Clark county, O., by John Dixon of Cynthia, a brother of the victim of the mob at Springfield Monday evening, for damages. A colored attorney will have the case in hand. The amount asked will be $5,000, the sum allowed by a statute referring to such cases.

Official details have been received of the loss of the French steamship Cambodge, from Rangoon, India, February 17th, for Europe, off the coast of Cochin China. It is believed that 100 persons perished with the vessel. The steamer was wrecked during a terrific storm. A series of huge waves broke over her and she finally sank in eight meters of water. Help was sent from Saigon.

A dispatch to The London Telegraph from Tokyo says: "It is reported that the Japanese fleet engaged the Russian Vladivostok squadron at sea Tuesday. The result of the engagement is not announced, but it is believed that the Russian ships were destroyed or captured." The Telegraph also has a dispatch from Shanghai, reporting a land engagement 100 miles from Vladivostok, in which the Russians fled, abandoning their arms and stores.

At Frankfort, the Senate yesterday morning passed the bill introduced by Senator Spence of Newport, providing for pensioning aged, disabled and retired policemen in cities of the second class. An amendment was adopted to include firemen also. The Committee on Education reported favorably the House Bill providing co-education of races in Kentucky, and known as the Berea College Bill. The same committee reported adversely on Senator Campbell's schoolbook bill, which is known as a state administration measure. Senator Campbell's motion to take up and vote on his bill provoked a sensational debate. In the course of a long speech Senator Campbell said that no matter what whisperings had ever been indulged in in the Capitol corridors regarding the hook bill fight, no lobbyist had ever fallen out in an argument as to which one influenced him, and that he had understood that such had been the case as to Senator Cantrill. Senator Cantrill, responding, said that any person, whether of high or low degree, who used his name in such connection was a damnable and infamous liar. The House passed the bill appropriating $66,000 for improvements at the Frankfort and Eddyville Penitentiaries. Opponents made a hot fight, but the bill finally went through by a vote of 63 to 29.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two-year-old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth street, Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Cold Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. The high water at headwaters prevented any coal getting away from Pittsburgh Tuesday.

Shipments aggregating nearly 2,000,000 bushels of coal have been made in the past few days from Pittsburgh.

The towboat Florence Marmet arrived at Cincinnati with the Winifred, a brand new boat, built at Winifred, W. Va. The Winifred will receive her machinery here.

The Big Sprague a day or so since, in attempting to come up over the falls at Louisville with 30 empty coalboats, 5 model barges of lumber and 5 empty barges, blew out a cylinder head, rendering her helpless. Her tow was scattered all over the river, one barge of lumber sank and she drifted back over the falls.

Captain Oscar F. Barrett of Covington and brother, Johnson Barrett of Frankfort, who own the large mill and boat building plant at Levan, O., two miles below Ripley, will soon build an immense coal elevator at that place and complete an electric light plant, for the purpose of supplying the surrounding territory with cheap coal. The Barretts own three towboats and many barges, and are fully equipped for the work in view. They expect to also supply three railroads.

The Name Witch Hazel.

The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve, of certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Blisters, Tetter, Piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous, while they are all worthless. In buying Witch Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on the box and a cure is certain. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

SENSE AT LAST!

These "Damage Suits" Will Blossom
No More in Kentucky

The Kentucky Court of Appeals has put a crimp in one line of heretofore very productive damage suits, by deciding that a "trespasser" is not entitled to recover.

The case was that of June Monahan, an infant, 6 years of age, who filed suit in the Campbell Circuit Court against the South Covington and Cincinnati Street Railway Company for damages for personal injuries sustained.

The child jumped on the rear platform of an electric car on the wrong side, and when the car started was thrown to the street, sustaining injuries.

When the case was tried before Judge Hodge several years ago Attorney L. J. Crawford, representing the Company, asked for a peremptory instruction, on the grounds that the child was a trespasser and that the Conductor was unaware that it was hanging on the car.

The attorney for the plaintiff held that it was the duty of the Conductor to know that the child was there when the car started off.

Judge Hodge gave peremptory instructions to the jury.

On the second trial of the case the Court gave peremptory instructions to the jury for the second time.

The Court of Appeals sustained the decision of the Lower Court, holding that the child was a trespasser, and that the plaintiff failed to show that the Conductor knew that the child was on the car. It further held that if the Conductor saw the child it was his duty to shield it from any danger.

The case establishes a precedent in the state of Kentucky in cases where children hang on cars or other moving vehicles.

NOTICE.

Now is the time to take stock in the Thirtieth Series Limestone Building Association.

The (early Spring) March number of Fashions, published by R. L. Hoeflich reached us today, and its readers most certainly have a treat to look forward to. The early Spring styles shown in this number will prove of interest to all the home folks, and besides this, there will be found a number of very interesting short stories by well-known authors. Also the sixth installment of that fascinating romance, "The Heart of Denise." The regular departments are all filled with interesting and instructive matter, and all worthy of careful reading. The center page will prove very attractive to those interested in art, it being made up of photographs of many celebrated paintings by famous artists. It will therefore pay all to call early at R. L. Hoeflich and so make sure of securing a copy.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify

It is testimony like the following that has placed "The Old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen:

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Casto street, says:

I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down on a chair or rise without placing my hands to my back, and should I thoughtlessly bend over it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use effected an absolute cure.

Forsale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The first electric interurban railway, projected in Cuba is one from Cienfuegos, 30 miles to Cruces.

If the sun were hollow it could hold 500,000 globes the size of our earth, and an eye capable of viewing 10,000 square miles an hour would require 55,000 years to see all its surface.

An airship larger than any yet constructed is to be built at St. Ouen. It has been designed by Senor Jos de Patrocin, who has received a subsidy from the Brazilian Government for the purpose.

Confining Indoor Work
Cannot Make Them Sick Now.
PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUNDKeeps Hard Pressed Office Men and Women Well and Enjoying Life.

G. H. Beinhausen, Grateful for Healthy Health—Gives the Great Tonic to Friends Who Are Feeling Badly.

Read the last sentence of this letter even if you read no more than that. There is a lesson for you in the earnest efforts of this busy office man to help his friends find the way to Vitality and True Health.

Thousands of men and women who had forgotten what it was to feel the thrill of true health—toilers or pleasure seekers, with health broken by indoor existence—have learned in just this way (by having it forced upon them by an earnest friend) how Paine's Celery Compound, the marvellous Tonic and Vitalizer, is ready to give them Health again and to drive away all weakness and depression.

No mere stimulant can take the place of the nerve nourishment given to the Nerves by Paine's Celery Compound.

Sherwood Park, Yonkers, N. Y.,
January 7, 1904.

I am recommending Paine's Celery Compound to many of the people in our office, and

I am glad to say to you what I say to them, that

Celery Compound is a boon to run-down, nervous people, and gives the courage and health that makes life worth living and makes work pleasant.

"My occupation puts such a strain on me and keeps me so confined that it is only once or twice in years that I take a good, long walk."

"Every Spring I had a serious sickness, a sort of general break-down."

"My digestion, which was always bad, would grow worse and cause me violent pains. For weeks at a time I would not be able to assimilate food."

"When the doctor told me it was 'nerve exhaustion' I thought he was simply unable to tell me what the trouble really was, and I said I did not believe in 'nerves.'"

"I took several kinds of digestion medicine, but it did me no good. I read an advertisement of Paine's Celery Compound one day and thought I would try it and see if the trouble really was in the nerves."

"My friends were astonished to see how quickly I improved, but none of them was more astonished than myself."

"The trouble in my stomach and intestines was gone in three weeks or a month, and I began to take as much pleasure in life as a man who lives entirely out-of-doors."

"I still take Paine's Celery Compound, off and on, for the vitality that it gives me. I know a great many people who are as badly off as I was, but the trouble with them is, 'they do not believe in nerves.' I say: 'Well even if you haven't nerves, let me give you one dose of Paine's Celery Compound, and see how much better you feel.' It is better than arguing with them. I have started several friends in that way."

G. H. BEINHAUSEN.

"The only Real Cure is that which cures the REAL CAUSE. Treating symptoms is more waste of time. The Cause of nearly all disease and pain is in the inner nerves."

—Professor Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth College, the famous Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound.

READ IT THROUGH.

Would Spoil This Story to Tell It in the Headlines.

To use an eighteenth century phrase, this is an "over time tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1862, it is a story very much of the present. Up to about time ago Mrs. John E. Harrison of Mays Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Last January, she says, my baby took a dreadful cold and one time I feared she would have pneumonia but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son.

PREDICTED DEATH

Strange Saying of Colored Child Who Died Yesterday Morning

The granddaughter of Lee Brown, colored, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at his home in Catholic alley, aged 4 years.

A short time before her death the child, who is an orphan, is said to have told her relatives that she would die at 11 o'clock, and that her mother would come for her in the shape of a pig.

At the hour named, as she predicted, her last words being "There's that pig," she passed away.
